Baird City, July 5.—Yesterday was a gala day for Baird. The energetic people of this town and county went to work with a vim, and succeeded beyond expectation in preparing a sumptuous barbecue to feed the countless throng that came to enjoy our hose pitality. We were indeed glad to meet our people and feed them upon the fatted sheep and piz as well as the fatted calf. Our barbecue was not like the dinner of the multitude of five thousand in the Holy Land. Instead of a few loaves and fishes to fill the multitude we had beeves, sheep and hozs quantum sufficit and the miracle to be performed was to get people enough to put on the outside of our provisions. The barbecue grounds were just north of the business portion of town, and on the north side of the court-house square. The table, so to speak, "groaned under the weight of the viands." The table, so to speak, "groaned under the weight of the viands." While the gentlemen prepared the more substantial food, the ladies manipulated the delicacies for the table. The people gathered from all parts of the county, and some from neighboring counties to enjoy our national holiday, and break bread in commemoration of the glorious 4th of July, 1776, made so by the acts of our ancestors. The ceremonies on this occasion were commenced at half past 10 o'clock by Judge B. R. Webb in a few appropriate remarks introducing Mr. A. W. Oliver, who read the dectaration of independence, after which Baptist church, after occasion reformed and dy Grove.
